

What is Learning Management System?

Learning Management System (LMS) is a cloud-based application designed to enable organizations for E-training. A LMS allows to consolidate all the learning material in a central location, making it easily accessible to any learner from anywhere, at any time.

E-Learning Trends

Source: Small Biz Trends

of online video is viewed on mobile of people now use mobile devices to access learning of organizations said they would implement video as part of their Digital Learning Strategy

AMBC E-Learning Features

User Management

Allows you to add / edit users, assign them roles, and combine learners into groups. Users can be learners, trainers, managers & administrators

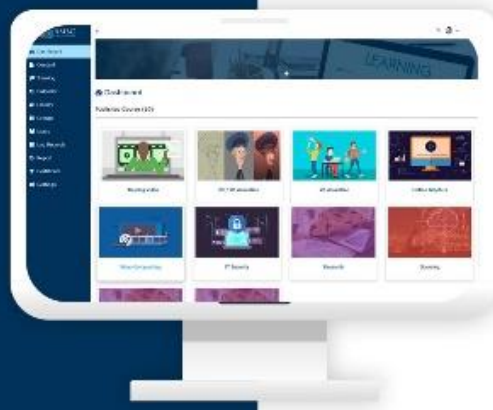

Customizable Dashboard

Flexibility to create own visual uniqueness within the platform establishing a smooth interface

Course Management

Each learners curriculum can be set based on their course content

Progress Tracking

Measure the progress (or) the performance of every individual learner in different time intervals during the course

Records & Report

Track and maintain the records of the learners with their detailed performance, and generate a wide variety of custom reports

Certification

Issuing professional certificates to learners after course completion

Benefits of E-Learning

Reduce training costs

Measure training effectiveness

Improve work performance

Multi-Device Solutions

Unlimited access to learning content anytime and anywhere